

“8. Agriculture water management operations, planning, bench marks, implementation, coordination, improvement or maintenance of watercourses, rehabilitation of irrigation schemes outside canal commands, provision of laser land levelers or its financial assistance, farm layout planning and designing, installation and post installation services of high efficiency Irrigation systems, solar powered irrigation, tunnels, on farm drainage services, provision of water management related machinery to farmers or service providers, irrigation agronomy practices and methods, groundwater management, development and construction of water storage ponds, tanks and dug-wells for on farm storages, harvesting or development of water resources in barani or rain-fed areas, capacity building training of professionals and farmers in agricultural water management, irrigation research, advisory services to the farmers regarding judicious use of available water, water budgeting and accounting, and evapotranspiration based water management under changing climate”.

Agricultural water management operations, planning benchmarks, Implementation, coordination, improvement of maintenance of watercourses, rehabilitation of irrigation schemes outside canal commands, provision of laser land levelers or its (financial assistance, farm layout planning and : designing, installation and post installation services of high efficiency irrigation systems, solar powered irrigation, tunnels, on farm drainage services, provisions of water management related machinery to farmers or service providers, irrigation agronomy practices and methods, groundwater management development and construction of water storage ponds, tanks and dug-wells on farm storages, harvesting or development of water resources in barani or rain-fed areas, capacity building training of professionals and farmers in agricultural water management, irrigation research, advisory services to the farmers regarding judicious use of available water, water budgeting and accounting, and evapotranspiration based water management under changing climate."